

Privacy Policy for Ftime

Ftime is an IPTV platform available on the App Store and Google Play. The platform provides television and multimedia content services and operates exclusively through Fnet Internet services. Ftime values the privacy of its users and is committed to protecting personal data.

This Privacy Policy document describes the types of information that are collected and recorded by Ftime and how we use it. This policy applies only to online activities within the Ftime application and does not apply to any information collected offline or through other channels.

Consent

By using the Ftime IPTV application, you hereby consent to this Privacy Policy and agree to its terms. By registering, logging in, or using the Application through the Fnet Internet network, the User agrees to the processing of personal data for the purpose of providing IPTV and related digital services.

Information We Collect

We may collect personal information such as name, surname, phone number, email address, Fnet service-related information, account and subscription details, device information, application usage data, and any other personal data voluntarily provided by the User.

How We Use Your Information

Collected information is used to provide and maintain IPTV services, manage subscriptions, improve streaming quality, personalize content, communicate service updates, provide customer support, and ensure service security.

Log Files

Ftime uses log files to analyze trends, administer the application, track user movement within the app, and gather demographic information. This data is not linked to personally identifiable information.

GDPR Data Protection Rights

Users in the European Economic Area have the right to access, correct, delete, restrict, or object to the processing of their personal data, as well as request data portability.

CCPA Privacy Rights

Under the California Consumer Privacy Act, users may request disclosure or deletion of collected personal data. Ftime does not sell personal data.

Children's Information

Ftime services are not intended for children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children.
